

REENTRY WITH ALEPH - A GENERAL OVERVIEW

The Aleph Institute Reentry Department is a referral service. These resources are provided for you to make contact on your own. Availability of services provided to you, depends on the county you are releasing to.

RESOURCES/SERVICES WE REFER YOU TO:

- Reentry Programs
- Basic Needs (ID, SS card, Food, Clothing, etc.)
- Public Housing & Sober Living
- Transportation
- Employment Leads and Career Centers
- Mental Health Help & Support Group Services
- Medical Insurance & Health Clinics
- Jewish Family/Community Services

WHAT WE CAN DO AS A REFERRAL SERVICE:

- When there is an application available, we will print and provide it for you.
- It is up to you to follow through with the organizations after we provide you these referrals.
- Provide you with the public information of resources/services according to your area of release.
- Housing: Transitional homes, Shelters, Sober living programs Senior Assistance if available.
- Resources to centers to navigate your employment search.
- Create your first draft resume after you provide us a general outline of work experience.
- Reentry programs provide services for reentry needs, We suggest starting here when available to you.

WHAT WE CANNOT DO AS A REFERRAL SERVICE:

- Assist you with funding or financing of housing and any other costs that occur in your transition.
- Make inquiries or resolve any personal finances such as banking, loans, mortgages, or government/social service benefits on your behalf.
- Communicate with the resources/services provided. It is your responsibility to take action on any referrals received.
- Maintain daily communication due to Aleph Reentry's limited staffing and high volume of inquiries. We ask you to please be patient with response time and communications in general.
- Choose a release location for you or provide resources for multiple release locations. If your release location changes after you receive your resource packet, you will need to send us a new request.

There are no guarantees of our services

Inquire in your facility Case manager for resources as well.

Our ability to assist will be based on a first come first served basis.
